

CANCELLED

CANCEL CULTURE: Uncovering _____ in someone's past & feeling the need to: _____ it to the world's attention, _____ in the public domain & then _____ them ruthlessly.

THE UNDERLYING ISSUES

The world just does not know what to _____ with _____: Knows it's a _____ ... knows there should be _____

... can't _____ it _____ to define it

... and has no idea where _____ & _____ fit in.

* This should be no surprise: The Enemy is trying to _____ people from the Gospel, _____ the Gospel, and, ultimately, _____ the Gospel.

* We live in a _____ & _____ world, where everyone wants _____ but isn't prepared to _____ it.

* As a result, society has become very _____ and hugely _____.

TRUTH & MORALITY: Truth is _____ & _____ ... apart from _____ truth, which is, by definition, the _____.

And if you _____ my truth, you become the _____.

* If anyone perceives themselves to be the _____ of anything, they want to have a free card to complete _____ & _____, with no room for _____, no _____ that's good enough & no opportunity for _____ of any sort.

* Part of the challenge to us as Christians is that the judgment of _____ gets _____ is being driven by people who, on the whole, stand for a very different set of _____ to us.

KEY PRINCIPLE (Roman 12:2)

- * There is a _____ which is loud, imposing & growing in popularity.
- * The danger, as Christians, is that we start to _____ to that _____ & lose sight of the _____.

THE WORLD'S WAY (John 8:1-6)

- _____ people's faults.
- _____ them in the court of social media opinion.
- _____ them: Write them off, blacklist & ban them for life.

JESUS CANCELLED (Colossians 2:13-14)

- * The wonderful thing about the Gospel is that Jesus was well & truly _____ in _____ & the only thing _____ that got _____ was _____.
- * The good news is that cancelling is therefore no longer a _____ for us.

THE GOSPEL WAY (John 8:7-11)

- _____ to _____ (1 Peter 4:8, Proverbs 4:12).
- _____ when _____ might reasonably have been expected.
- _____ : The _____ doesn't get cancelled; their _____ does.

So as Christians, we're called to be vessels of _____, agents of _____ & unquestioning, unconditional, habitual _____.

- * The Enemy loves _____ people & piling on the _____ & _____.
- * As the _____ we must not _____.
