INDUCTIVE BIBLE STUDY METHOD

1. Consider the Context

- Who is writing or speaking and to whom?
- What is the passage about?
- When does this take place?
- Where does this take place?
- Why does the author write what he does?
- What problems were the recipients facing? How does the text help?
- How does this passage fit in with the context? (What goes before and after?)

2. Observe the passage by asking questions

- What are the commands?
- What are the promises?
- What are the cause/effect relationships?
- What are the repeated words and ideas?
- What do I learn about God?
- What do I learn about Jesus?
- What do I learn about the Holy Spirit?
- What do I learn about myself (or mankind)?
- Write out any additional observations including contrasts, lists, comparisons, etc.

3. What is the 'big idea' of the passage?

This can most readily be identified from the commands and the repeated words and ideas. Often there will be one instruction in the passage from which the rest flows. Try to sum up the main thought of the passage in a single phrase. What's the key verse?

4. Application

2 Timothy 3:16: "All Scripture is inspired by God and is profitable for ..."

- Teaching: What did I learn?
- Reproof: Where do I fall short? Why do I fall short?
- Correction: What will I do about it?
- Training in righteousness: How can I make this principle a consistent part of my life?

Psalm 119:130 (AMP)

The entrance and unfolding of Your words give light; their unfolding gives understanding (discernment and comprehension) to the simple.

Dear Church

Having read through the New Testament in 2018 and studied some of the books in detail on Sundays, we are offering people the opportunity to read through the rest of the Bible (the bigger bit!) in 2019.

This program presents the Old Testament in a more or less chronological sequence, with readings Monday through Friday from January 1st to December 31st. The weekends are clear for catch-up and we can take Christmas Day off! I am grateful for this site for the order of readings - <https://www.biblestudytools.com/bible-reading-plan/chronological.html> - though it has been modified very slightly to fit. If you fall behind, please don't worry - it doesn't really matter when you start or finish - but we'd encourage you to persevere if you can, because it will be well worth it. (I recently took over 4 years to work through the New Testament with Warren Wiersbe's commentaries!)

So, I do hope you'll come on the journey with us. On the back of this booklet are some ideas to help you get the most out of your reading. Our prayer is that it feeds you, inspires you and greatly enhances your walk with the Lord.

Happy reading!
