

19. If we were to move to two services in the morning, would you be happy to volunteer for both services (which might not mean you have to be in attendance all through both services) or would you definitely prefer to work in just one? (It might be a difficult question to answer just yet, but we're curious.)

Possibly both  Definitely just one

20. If you are serving in one service, do you think you might be interested in just attending the other service to meet your own personal needs?

Shouldn't think so  Quite possibly

21. Would a multiple services make you more or less likely to commit to a regular Connect Group?

More likely  Less likely  About the same

MULTI-SITE

Multi-site means that the church would be run by theBarn Bidford, and would, at least initially, be resourced from theBarn Bidford – same children's work, youth, praise and worship and preacher ... Same vision, same mission, same programs, same culture, same heart. Thus, the service would, at least initially, be at a different and distinct time to the service(s) we're running in Bidford. We would anticipate that the teams would mostly comprise our own key team members and the people living in or around the satellite location.

22. If we were to launch a 'satellite' service in your town (assuming you don't live in Bidford), how would you feel? Would you definitely want to support it?

Yes  Maybe  Probably not, Bidford works for me

23. Actually, my town is crying out for a Barn satellite (please tick all that apply)

Absolutely  Not really needed  Not convinced it would work

If the answer is 'absolutely,' what's your home town? _____

10. If you were to choose the later of two services, what would be your primary reason for that choice? (Please tick any that apply)

Our family get up later by habit  1st service would start too early

10.30 is early enough for us as it is  Potential guests are more likely to come with us at the later time

BIGGER PICTURE

11. Which of these possibilities excites you the most? Rank them 1 (favourite) to 4 (least preferable)

One location, single service of 250

One location, two services of 250

One location, single service of 1000

Multiple locations, single services of 250

12. What aspects of a growing church excite you the most? Please tick up to three.

I love the buzz of a busy church  It's great having so many resources available

It's about reaching the lost; the more space we can make the better  If it's big, I can be less conspicuous

With so much to do, there's more opportunity for my gifting  I want my kids to have lots of Christian friends

13. What are your feelings about not knowing the names of lots of people in your service? (Please tick any that apply)

Oh no, I'm losing touch with my church  This is great, there's all these new people

Right, who can I introduce myself to today?  Too big for me, I'm going to find a church that's more intimate

14. What are your greatest apprehensions about switching to two services? (Please tick any that apply)

I might miss some of my friends  I really like our current routine

It will be emptier to begin with + I like the buzz of a full church  Have we got enough volunteers to cover all the jobs?

It won't feel the same + I like it how it is  I'm struggling to picture whether I'd choose earlier or later

15. What excites you about moving to two services? (Please tick any that apply)

It will be helpful to have two options  More space for new people and that's the 'main thing'

If it's less busy my kids will probably get more attention  New and different is exciting

Greater choice for any 'unchurched' friends I invite  More opportunity for me to get involved / use my gifts

16. If we were to have a 4.30 Sunday afternoon service somewhere at some point, would that be of interest to you?

Definitely  Sometimes  If it was in my town  Not at all

17. What factors might attract you to a 4.30 service? (Please tick any that apply)

A lie in  A morning of family activities

My kids can do Sunday sport  It's a genuine and different option

Any 'unchurched' friends I invite might be attracted to it  If we're away for the weekend, we can still come to church

VOLUNTEERING

18. If we were to move to two services, do you think you might be able to commit to volunteer more often?

More often  About the same
