INDUCTIVE BIBLE STUDY METHOD

1. Consider the Context → Who is writing or speaking and to whom? What is the passage about? When does this take place? Where does this take place? Why does the author write what he does? What problems were the recipients facing? How does the text help? How does this passage fit in with the context? (What goes before and after?)

2. Observe the passage by asking questions → What are the commands? What are the promises? What are the cause/effect relationships? What are the repeated words and ideas? What do I learn about God? What do I learn about Jesus? What do I learn about the Holy Spirit? What do I learn about myself (or mankind)? Write out any additional observations including contrasts, lists, comparisons, etc.

3. What is the 'big idea' of the passage? → This can most readily be identified from the commands and the repeated words and ideas. Often there will be one instruction in the passage from which the rest flows. Try to sum up the main thought of the passage in a single phrase. What's the key verse?

4. Application → 2 Timothy 3:16: "All Scripture is inspired by God and is profitable for ..." Teaching: What did I learn? Reproof: Where do I fall short? Why do I fall short? Correction: What will I do about it? Training in righteousness: How can I make this principle a consistent part of my life?

BIBLE READING PLAN January to March 2016

theBarn

Psalm 119:130 (AMP)

The entrance and unfolding of Your words give light; their unfolding gives understanding (discernment and comprehension) to the simple.

Dear Church

Our commitment to you, as expressed in our Mission Statement is to help you 'Meet with God, Walk with God and Serve God.'

Walking with God is your weekly journey with the Lord ... as you build on what He's doing in your life, feed on His Word in your personal devotions and dialogue with the Holy Spirit through the affairs and challenges of life.

This Bible Reading Plan is designed to provide direction and inspiration for that personal walk. We are well-aware that some structure really helps. And one of the things we can easily do is provide that for you ... if you choose you use it.

Dave Charlton has once again kindly put together this latest collection of readings. Each week has a theme, tied in with our desire to meet with, walk with and serve God. The weekend readings are subtitled 'Sunday School Bible Stories.'

I hope you find them stimulating, helpful and faith-building.

Happy reading!
